

Reassignment

Section 1.

The provisions of the Article apply solely to reassignments within the bargaining unit(s).

Section 2.

An employee who is reassigned will be given a reasonable period of time to learn and satisfactorily perform the functions of their new position in accordance with the Agency's approved Performance Management System as incorporated into this Agreement.

Section 3.

Reassignments to positions with promotion potential higher than the employee's current position are processed under the provisions of the Merit Promotion Article of this Agreement.
